

ROARING SPRING® PAPER PRODUCTS

New for 2021

2020 Catalog Supplement

To Our Valued Customers,

We are experiencing difficult times in our country. We continue to battle a deadly pandemic and the resulting impact on our economy. Like many of our customers, the pandemic has created significant challenges for our business. We have used this as an opportunity to focus inward, working to improve the way we work and what we make.

At Roaring Spring Paper Products, we have high ethical standards. Our Workplace Code of Conduct outlines our expectations that employees will be treated with respect and dignity and be provided with safe and healthy working conditions. We have instituted practices that help us identify partners who share our values and who will commit to integrating Corporate Social Responsibility into their business practices.

We have also spent time evaluating our organization through the lens of racial equality. We understand that inequality for some is inequality for all. Roaring Spring Paper Products is committed to being part of the solution. We are looking more closely at our partners, from companies we work with, to platforms we promote ourselves on, to make sure that our greater networks align with our core values. Our commitment to equal treatment and opportunity is unwavering.

2020 has been challenging for so many of us, and we look forward to moving through these troubled times and emerging stronger than ever.

Stay well,

Your Partners at Roaring Spring Paper Products

doane paper®

Established in 2005 Doane Paper is an unconventional stationery goods effort centered around the idea of combining grid+lines onto a single sheet of paper.

Available Now

20# Heavy-weight White Paper Works Well with Gel Pens

"The grid+lines design allows [students] to record not only their observations, but also create organized data tables and accurate graphs."

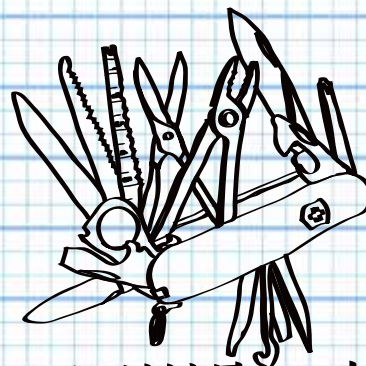

~Chemistry Teacher

"The grid+lines concept is genius for us because we spend half our time writing and half drawing."

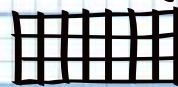

~Jedd Rose, Co-Founder of TOPO Designs

"[Grids+lines] lets me switch between scientific work, diagrams, long-form text, and everything else, all on the same page."

~PhD Student, Cornell University

LINES

Thanks to a loyal customer buying base that has fostered the brand, Doane Paper has grown; slowly and organically from a stationery pattern concept into a premium physical stationery line. Doane Paper is routinely shipped directly to individual college students and to college science/chemistry departments.
